

U.S. Department of Defense
Native Hawaiian Cultural Communication and Consultation Course
Hickam Officers Club, JBPHH

A DoD Native Hawaiian Cultural Communication and Consultation Course (NHCCCC) will be held August 19-20, 2015, in Hawaii, at the Hickam Officers Club, 900 Worthington Avenue, JBPHH. Native Hawaiian specialists in history, culture, intercultural communication and consultation, and legal experts will teach this acclaimed training. The course begins with registration at 0730 and classes conducted from 0800-1700. You must attend the entire 2-day training program to receive a certificate of course completion.

This FREE course provides valuable information for DoD employees whose work may have an effect on Native Hawaiians and for those already working with Native Hawaiians and Native Hawaiian Organizations. The training will include:

- A Native Hawaiian perspective on Hawaiian history
- Visit to the Hickam Burial Vault with cultural interpreters
- Introduction to Hawaiian concepts and culture
- Insight into resources of special importance to Hawaiians
- Review of Federal laws, regulations, and policies that impact DoD consultation relationships with Native Hawaiian Organizations
- Background on responsibilities for implementing the DoD Policy on Consultation With Native Hawaiian Organizations, DoDI 4710.03
- Intercultural communications and relationship building techniques
- Discussion of strategies and practical steps for consulting with Native Hawaiians
