

Louisiana Camp Minden

Facility and Location

Camp Minden is a 15,000 acre training site near Shreveport. This facility produces its own water from deep groundwater production wells. It was formerly operated as the Louisiana Army Ammunition Plant.

Media Sampled and Findings

Drinking Water — In 2011, two samples reported no detection.

Appropriate Actions

Not Applicable. All samples were below the EPA and DoD Preliminary Remediation Goal of 15 ppb.