

Maine

Prospect Harbor Naval Satellite Operations Station

Facility and Location

Prospect Harbor is part of a network of Navy satellite tracking stations. It has three separate water systems. One is a public works system regulated by the state. No munitions have ever been stored onsite.

Media Sampled and Findings

Drinking Water — In 2007, three samples reported no detection. Prior to 2007, three samples reported no detection.

Appropriate Actions

Not Applicable. All samples were below the EPA and DoD Preliminary Remediation Goal of 15 ppb.