

Minnesota Duluth IAP

Facility and Location

The Air National Guard's 148th Fighter Wing is located at Duluth International Airport (IAP) in St. Louis County, seven miles northwest of downtown Duluth. The 148th Fighter Wing currently flies the F-16 Fighting Falcon. The main base occupies the northeast corner of the airport and includes a munitions storage area north of Runway 09/27 which is physically separated from the main base.

Media Sampled and Findings

Groundwater — Prior to 2007, four samples from Monitoring Wells 001, 006, 007, and 010 reported no detection.

Appropriate Actions

Not Applicable. All samples were below the EPA and DoD Preliminary Remediation Goal of 15 ppb.