

Missouri Camp Clark

Facility and Location

Camp Clark is a Missouri Army National Guard Training Site located near the city of Nevada. Limited public access is allowed. The post is closed to all public access at any time units are in training. Between December 1942 and May 1946, Missouri was home to more than 10,000 German and Italian prisoners of war who lived in 32 camps scattered throughout the state, including at Camp Clark. Camp Clark also serves as part of a training program to rehabilitate 'at-risk' youth.

Media Sampled and Findings

Drinking Water — In 2011, two samples reported no detection.

Appropriate Actions

Not Applicable. All samples were below the EPA and DoD Preliminary Remediation Goal of 15 ppb.