Central Oregon Training and Education Facility

The Central Oregon Training and Education Facility, located in Bend and northeast of the Deschutes National Forest, is the site of state Youth Challenge Program. It is run by an assortment of full time State employees who bring in volunteer at risk teens to complete high school academics and teach them academics and job corps related skills. Two classes are run per year through the program with about 50 to 100 youth per class. There are about 40 support staff, councilors, and teachers.
