New Computer Workstation Posters Available Free of Charge!

Place Your Order Now

The Ergonomics Program at the U.S. Army Center for Health Promotion and Preventive Medicine (USACHPPM) has revised its popular “Designing a Comfortable Workstation” and “Take Time to Stretch” posters.

These full-color, 18" x 24" posters may be ordered by emailing your request to:

ArmyErgonomics@amedd.army.mil

At this time, quantities are limited to two posters per request. If you would like larger quantities, the Ergonomics Program will provide you with the electronic file for printing.
