Meeting Ground Rules

1. Meetings start and end precisely as scheduled.
2. Meetings are open to public participation.
3. At all times — an atmosphere of mutual respect.
4. To allow for meaningful participation by everyone, time constraints will be exercised by the chair. Time will be extended for additional discussion or presentation following an approval of a specific request to the chair.
5. Comments and discussion should be germane to the topic currently being discussed.
6. Requests for agenda items should be made to the chair as soon as possible prior to the next meeting.
