SUBJECT: Designation of the Department of the Army Federal Preservation Officer

1. References:

a. Department of Defense Instruction 4715.16, Cultural Resources Management, 18 September 2008, Incorporating Change 2, Effective 31 August 2018.

b. General Order 2019-01, Assignment of Functions and Responsibilities Within Headquarters Department of the Army, 15 May 2019.

c. Army Regulation (AR) 200-1, Environmental Protection and Enhancement, 13 December 2007.

d. Executive Order 13287: Preserve America, 03 March 2003.

e. Memorandum, SAIE-ESOH, 8 March 2011, subject: Designation of the Army's Deputy Federal Preservation Officer.

2. In accordance with referenced authorities 1.a. – 1.d., and as the Department of the Army Senior Policy Official for historic preservation, I am designating Dr. David Guldenzopf as the Department of the Army Federal Preservation Officer.

3. As the Army Federal Preservation Officer, Dr. Guldenzopf has major department-wide responsibilities for the Army's historic preservation program and Army compliance with the National Historic Preservation Act (NHPA). Dr. Guldenzopf is the Department of the Army representative to the Advisory Council on Historic Preservation, State Historic Preservation Offices, Tribal Historic Preservation Offices, Department of Interior, National Park Service, and non-governmental historic preservation organizations, among others.

4. Dr. Guldenzopf is authorized to act as agency official, consult on behalf of the Department of the Army, and sign Department of the Army NHPA correspondence and NHPA Program Alternatives for purposes of compliance with Section 106 of the NHPA and 36 CFR 800. He is authorized to establish Army historic preservation policy and take other necessary actions regarding the Department of the Army's historic preservation program and compliance with the NHPA. Where there is a failure to resolve the adverse effect of an undertaking on historic properties and NHPA Section
