

Pollution Prevention Through Nanotechnology Conference

EPA/DoD Meeting

March 9, 2007

The Conference

- Being planned jointly by EPA/ORD & EPA/OPPT with input from others
- Will provide a forum to:
 - Exchange information and ideas on potential pollution prevention benefits
 - Identify and promote stewardship opportunities
- Early Summer 2007; 1 – 2 days

Scope

- Use of nanotechnology or nanomaterials to prevent pollution
 - Products
 - Processes
 - Resource Efficiency
- Responsible achievement of pollution prevention

Audience

- Industry
- Academic and Research Institutions
- Non-governmental organizations
- Government
- General Public

Conference Structure

Day 1

■ Afternoon

- Introductions
- EPA Information
- Session 1

■ Evening

- Poster session & refreshments

Day 2

■ Morning

- Session 2 (2 panels)

■ Lunch

■ Afternoon

- Session 2 con't (1 panel)
- Short top-level wrap-up

Planning

■ EPA/Stakeholder Steering Committee – first meeting March 6

- Environmental Advocates
- Industry
- Policy Groups
- States
- Academia

■ For further information:

- Clive Davies, 202-564-3821, davies.clive@epa.gov