Archaeology and Heritage Awareness Training -
The Ft. Drum Pilot Project

Dr. Laurie W. Rush
Cultural Resources Manager, Ft. Drum, NY
US Army
Course Outline

Need for Cultural Resources Awareness in the Global Setting
Strategic Value and Training Guidelines
Additional Information and Resources
Associated Considerations
Heritage Awareness Training

NEED FOR AWARENESS
GLOBAL OPERATIONS
HERITAGE PRESERVATION – LEGAL DRIVERS

National Historic Preservation Act
Ninth District Court “Dugong” Decision

Hague Convention

Blue Shield
Heritage Awareness Training

MISSION SUPPORT AND HERITAGE PRESERVATION – STRATEGIC VALUE
Heritage Awareness Training

REPLICA CEMETERIES

UNCLASSIFIED
HERITAGE PRESERVATION AND FORCE PROTECTION
Training Goals

Increase Situational Awareness and Experience With Combat Situations that Involve Heritage Property
Provide Pilots With Heritage Target Avoidance Practice in the Training Environment
Increase Situational Awareness to Prevent Unintended and Unnecessary Impacts to Heritage Property
Discourage Purchase of Antiquities
Heritage Awareness Training

REPLICA SITES
Heritage Awareness Training

AVOIDANCE TARGETRY FOR AERIAL GUNNERY
Heritage Awareness Training

TRAINING IN ACTUAL ARCHEOLOGICAL SITES

Before

After
Heritage Awareness Training

ANTIQUITIES MARKET
GUIDELINES

Be Aware of Archaeological Material
Don’t Be Fooled by Highly Visible Features
Think About Types of Impacts
Pay Attention if Members of the Local Population Express Concern
Think About Secondary Impacts
Heritage Awareness Training
Heritage Awareness Training
Associated Concerns

Cultural Property Comes in All Shapes and Sizes

Cultural Property is Often Targeted

Respect Historic Structures

Collateral Damage Can Include Impacts on Museums and Other Cultural Institutions
Heritage Awareness Training

Cultural Property